

NEW STEPS IN JAPANESE STUDIES/PART-IX

Crossing Feminist Thoughts in Japan and Korea:

Raichō Hiratsuka as Our Companion

Day & Time: April 6 (Thurs.), 2017, 2-5 PM

Place: 422, Faculty of Letters 4F, Kobe Univ.

Lecture (1): Mao Naka (Kobe Univ.)

“Some Glimpses at Japanese Feminist Philosophy: In terms of Reproduction and Motherhood”

Lecture (2): Jin Y. Park (American Univ., U.S.A.)

“Women and Buddhist Philosophy”

Discussants: Daisuke Higuchi & others

Moderator: Nobuo Kazashi

Profile of Prof. J.Y. Park (朴眞暎):

Professor of Philosophy and Religion.

Founding director of Asian Studies Program.

Internationally known for her unique works done at the crossroads of contemporary

European philosophy, Buddhist thought, and feminist thought.

From works:

Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism*, ed., 2009.

Comparative Political Theory and Cross-Cultural Philosophy*, ed., 2009.

Buddhism and Postmodernity: Zen, Huayan, and the Possibility of Buddhist

Postmodern Ethics*, 2008.

共催: 日本文化社会インスティテュート／倫理創成プロジェクト